

Regina Mixon Bates

Regina Mixon Bates is the CEO of The Physicians Practice S.O.S. Group®, a healthcare consulting and educational firm. She has long been in high demand across the country for her unique style of working one-on-one with physicians, their staff and as a nationally recognized healthcare speaker on topics that affect the day to day operations of healthcare organizations. Her speaking topics are aligned with her passion for helping providers succeed, professional development, entrepreneurship and women’s empowerment. Known as “MS SOS” to her clients she leverages her background in healthcare, entrepreneurial and personal experiences to deliver advice, anecdotes, humor and stories which inspire, engage, inform and move audiences to action!

Trivia: Regina is also a former professional model who started as a Ebony Fashion Fair Model-1986

KEYNOTE TOPICS

Mindset of a Successful Entrepreneur
Exceeding the Vision—Connect, Collaborate & Differentiate
Your Health is your Wealth
Women in Red with Heart—Know Your Numbers
The Business of Medicine

ABOUT REGINA

- Emcee, Speaker, Trainer, Author, Talk Show Host
- 20 years as CEO, The Physicians Practice S.O.S. Group®
- Serial Entrepreneur
- Multi Award and Honors Recipient in Business and Entrepreneurship
- Thought Leader in the Business of Healthcare
- Spokesperson—The American Heart Association “Go Red for Women” 2009-2014