

Regina Mixon Bates

Regina Mixon Bates has been the CEO of a national healthcare consulting firm, served on the board for the National Black MBA (NBMBA) as Director of Entrepreneurship and Economic Development, she is an accomplished national speaker and author. Her speaking topics are aligned with her passion for helping providers succeed, professional development, entrepreneurship and women's empowerment. Regina leverages her background in healthcare, entrepreneurial and personal experiences to deliver advice, anecdotes, humor and stories which inspire, engage, inform and move audiences to action!

Trivia: Regina is also a former professional model who started as a Ebony Fashion Fair Model-1986*

KEYNOTE TOPICS

Mindset of a Successful Entrepreneur
Exceeding the Vision—Connect, Collaborate & Differentiate
Your Health is your Wealth
Live Your Life by Design – Not Default
Women in Red with Heart—Know Your Numbers
The Business of Medicine

ABOUT REGINA

- Emcee, Speaker, Trainer, Author
- 20 years as CEO, The Physicians Practice S.O.S. Group®
- Serial Entrepreneur
- Multi Award and Honors Recipient in Business and Entrepreneurship
- Thought Leader in the Business of Healthcare
- Spokesperson—The American Heart Association “Go Red for Women”